To the Honorable City Council of the City of Pasadena

Mayor and Councilmembers:

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

1. Highlight of Black History Month Features Black History Parade:

Be sure to mark your calendars for one of the great local annual events in the City of Pasadena. On Saturday, February 15, 2014, the 32nd Annual Black History Parade and Festival will culminate the celebration of Black History Month. Mercy Santoro, Director of Human Services and Recreation invite you to attend the parade beginning at 10:00 a.m. at Charles White Park (Ventura & Fair Oaks in Altadena) and concludes at Robinson Park (1081 North Fair Oaks Avenue).

Stay and enjoy the Festival after the Parade at Robinson Park from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. There will be fun-filled activities for all ages and plenty of food vendors on hand to satisfy your appetite. Please contact the Jackie Robinson Community Center at (626) 744-7300 for additional information.

2. Villa-Parke Recreational Youth Soccer League Kicks Off 2014 Season:

On Saturday, February 22, 2014, the City of Pasadena Human Services and Recreation Department will be hosting the annual season opening inaugural parade for the Villa-Parke Recreational Youth Soccer League. The event is scheduled from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and will be held on the soccer field adjacent to the Villa-Parke Community Center, 363 East Villa Street.

According to Mercy Santoro, Director of Human Services and Recreation, a parade of approximately 70 youth soccer teams all dressed in uniform will be introduced to the community. City of Pasadena representatives and dignitaries will be present to officiate the festivities and youth and adult soccer exhibition games are scheduled following the parade. The public is invited and admission is free. Please contact Jorge Carcamo at (626) 744-6514 for event details.

Respectfully submitted,
